

Train with the experts...

and turn your passion for caring into a career that makes a difference

Certificate III In Individual Support (CHC33015)

Health Services is one of the fastest growing sectors and demand for qualified employees is high. The Certificate III in Individual Support (CHC33015) will give you the skills and knowledge to care for people in our community who require your support because of ageing or a disability.

What career options are available?

This qualification enables individuals to work in the community and residential facilities to provide person-centred care to people who may require support due to ageing or disability. Qualified workers are equipped with a range of factual, technical and procedural knowledge, as well as theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred care and support.

Upon successful completion of the Certificate III in Individual Support students will be eligible to be employed as:

- Aged Care Worker
- Disability Services Worker
- Personal Care Giver
- Residential Disability Support Worker
- Respite Care Worker

Why train with JHI?

The John Henry Institute (JHI) is part of St Agnes' Parish, which has provided vocational education across the Mid North Coast for over forty years.

At JHI we believe in providing real world training examples and real opportunities for individual growth. That's why our course is delivered in a working aged care facility with timetabled sessions at Newman College, our purpose built simulation centre.

JHI's Health Science team is led by a Registered Nurse with more than 20 years experience working in a range of services including: disability, community and aged care environments. This knowledge and experience means that you will receive hands on learning using current research and best practice standards to ensure you are work ready.

JHI's link to St Agnes' Parish affords students unique access to work placement. Study with JHI and access guaranteed work-placement with the Mid North Coast's largest aged care provider.
